Overlanding North America is a Veteran Owned Small Business dedicated to family, exploring and the Pursuit of Adventure.

We don't like to compromise on comfort when we're on the trail, but with the type of places we like to go, weight and size matters. Our growing family had tried almost every type of camp set up and we were never quite satisfied on our adventures until we found lifestyle campers.

We felt a responsibility to our fellow adventure families to share these amazing trailers that can go off grid, get you where you want to go while keeping your family in safety and comfort for your journeys wherever they take you!
